

Financials

The PCAA does not receive any funding from tax dollars. We rely on support and participation from the community to enrich our community with art and culture. Fiscal year ending August 31, 2017 *unaudited. The figures do not include the donation for and the purchase of property.

Letter from the President

As I look back on the past year as President of the Art Association, I have a great measure of gratitude — to our community, our members, our Executive Director and staff, and to my fellow board members. It has been a year filled with considerable successes and incredible growth. We made amazing progress on many fronts, including bringing art to the heart of our community, in a wide and diversified manner. Art helps us to grow. It allows us to connect with others in ways we could never otherwise imagine. I am honored to be serving with the Preble County Art Association in this way. A quote from Leonardo DaVinci reminds us, "The painter has the Universe in his mind and hands." Our PCAA Mission guides us in fueling creativity in Preble County, and in fostering a community rich in arts and culture. I hope all of you will join me in this endeavor, in this story, in this connection, for a long time to come.

Sincerely,
Polly C. Kronenberger

Vision

Our vision is a community in which every person can explore creativity through visual, interactive and educational experiences.

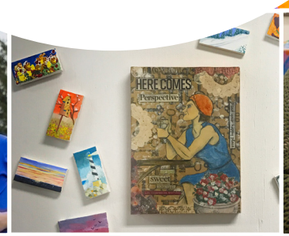
COMMUNITY REPORT

2016/2017



Education

1,014
Students Enrolled in a Class, Workshop or Camp. Up from last years, 929.

The Visual Art Center is a place for everyone to explore creativity on their own terms. From in depth classes to instructional workshops, it is easy and fun to participate in art. All our instructors have education and experience that help our students learn the most they can while having a great time.

In addition to individual students, we serve groups with a variety of needs. We are pleased to have partnered with these organizations to offer classes, workshops and programs: YWCA, Your Happy Place, Girl Scouts, L & M Products, Preble County ESC, Bruce Elementary, Preble County District Library, Leadership Preble County, Preble County Chamber of Commerce, Preble County Historical Society, Preble County Head Start, 1808 Cafe, Buckeye Jake's and Eaton Fire and EMS
